SPOKE and CONCERN UNITE!

Well it finally happened. The staffs of the two papers finally decided to put together and publish as one. The paper is run by the group of students including an editor and is supported by interested students and faculty.

The Editorial Policy consists of

- 1 No censorship
- 2 Editorial statements will be returned to author
- 3 We will print of articles submitted with writer's name. If desired writer's name will be withheld.

To publish a paper once a week as either newspaper form or quarterly form. We will attempt to cover all issues and give a public interest to them. There will be a linked line for all articles and suggestions. All topics matter will be printed. Editor has sole custody of text.

Should We Have A Yearbook?

by Brenda Bickel

I don't know how many people realize that there is a yearbook being given to us by the C.A.B. There are several from the last year but I don't know any of it.

I just recently began to see... (text continues) ...the yearbook is a very different way to see the world. It is a very different way to see the world. It is a very different way to see the world.

...the yearbook is a very different way to see the world. It is a very different way to see the world. It is a very different way to see the world.

I have... (text continues) ...the yearbook is a very different way to see the world. It is a very different way to see the world. It is a very different way to see the world.

Communications Wrap-up

By Doug Macdonald

Maybe that was the last of it, or maybe it's the beginning of a new era. The Communications Commission has been busy with its work, and it's not always easy to see what's going on. But it's not always easy to see what's going on.

Hairs Tabbie and Paul Visit Conestoga

By Doug Macdonald

Two young men, Tabbie and Paul, from the Victoria School in Hays, Kan., visited Conestoga College last week. They were both smiling and appeared to be in a casual setting.

Paul, who is a senior at the Victoria School, was the first to speak. He said that he had heard a lot about Conestoga College and was excited to visit.

Tabbie, who is a junior at the Victoria School, also spoke. He said that he had heard a lot about Conestoga College and was excited to visit.

During the visit, the two young men were shown around the campus and met with several faculty members. They were both very interested in the college and its programs.

Everybody Should Be Concerned!

By Doug Macdonald

Everybody should be concerned! This is a message that should be heard by everyone. It's not just about one person or one group, but about everyone.
